

MICROSOFT TEAMS INTEGRATION

NTA now works with Microsoft Teams, the integration allows the Teams client to support all of the collaboration features with the core functionality of the NTA platform delivering all of our amazing voice feature-set, bringing together a powerful solution for your customers.

Teams registers to each individual user as an extension and when receiving a call, the Teams app for that specific user starts to ring.

Please click here for further information

A demonstration & set up video will be sent within the next few weeks but in the meantime, if this service is of interest please contact us and we will provide a live demonstration.